PETITIONING THE COURT

[ X] To issue a summons

On 10/18/07, the U.S. Probation Officer submitted a memorandum to the Court with an attached letter written by Kenneth Lamarche. In the letter, Lamarche requested to appear before the Court to be heard on issue of his special condition that he reside at Coolidge House for a six (6) month period following his release from federal custody. Given the developments described below, the U.S. Probation Office is now seeking revocation proceedings.

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number	Nature of Noncompliance
-------------------------	--------------------------------

I

Violation of Special Condition: The defendant shall reside for a period of six (6) months in a community corrections center and shall observe the rules of that facility.

On 7/3/07, Kenneth Lamarche was released from the custody of the U.S. Marshal's Service, at which time he reported to Coolidge House. Lamarche was scheduled to complete his term at Coolidge House on 1/3/08. However, on 10/26/07, Coolidge House staff contacted the U.S. Probation Officer and advised that when Lamarche left for work that day, he removed all of his personal belongings from his room and left a note indicating that he would not be returning to Coolidge House. On 10/27/07, Lamarche left a message for the U.S. Probation Officer and confirmed that he left the program due to family problems and that would not be returning.
